Millions of years ago, at opposite ends of the world, lived two enormous giants who both thought that they were the rightful ruler of everything before them. Until one day, each giant discovers that he has a rival... and that's where the fun starts!

With the turn of each page, both giants try with ever increasing effort to rid the world of his rival – resulting in a large scale battle, and some oversized fun and games!

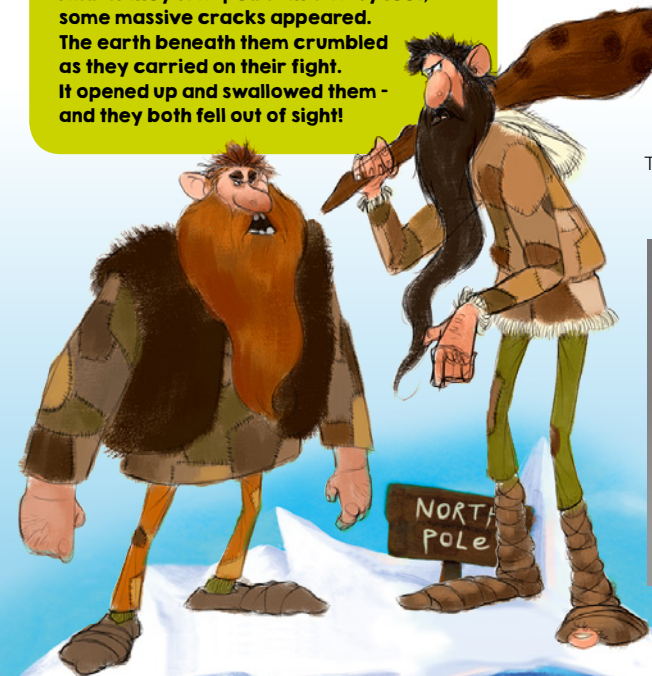

Ever wondered why there are no polar bears in the South Pole? Or penguins in the Northern Hemisphere?

Well, our giant friends may have something to do with it! The Ice Giant Duel explores why the equator is hot, why the poles are covered in white and how Pangea broke up – and how the actions of our pair of brawling colossi help to shape the world today – or did they?

GIANT-SIZED FUN & GAMES!

The giants fought with hefty clubs and pulled each other's beards, And as they stomped with clumsy feet, some massive cracks appeared. The earth beneath them crumbled as they carried on their fight. It opened up and swallowed them - and they both fell out of sight!

The Author

Schoolgirl Lucy Moroney lives with her family on the Wirral Peninsula. The Spider and the Whale is her first book. The story was inspired by an incident with her Mum and a spider in the bathroom! Lucy's fantastic imagination and her warm sense of humour helped her fabricate this amusing tale.

In 2017, aged just 9, Lucy was diagnosed with Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG) – a terminal, inoperable brain tumour. Proceeds from the sale of this book will go towards Lucy's Pineapple Fund (as Lucy really loves pineapples) to pay for alternative treatments and therapies. Any additional funds will go towards research into DIPG.
